STEi Institute

Proficiency in Designated Security Duties Course

COURSE FEES:
S$ 254.67 (Inclusive GST)

DURATION:
1 Day

Your Life Chance
www.stei.edu.sg

Introduction

Proficiency in Designated Security Duties Course is to enable participants who are designated to perform security duties, including anti-piracy and anti-armed robbery-related activities under the ships security plan, to meet the requirements of STCW Reg. VI-6

For Whom

For Seafarers.

Course Coverage

The course covers the following topics:

- Maritime Security Overview
- Maritime Security Threats, including Piracy, Armed robbery and Stowaway
- Detection of Threats
- Deterrence of Threats
- Security Responses and Procedures
- Maintaining the conditions set out in a ship security plan
- Recognise security risks and threats
- Conduct of regular security inspections of the ship
- Proper use of security equipment and systems, if any

Pre-Requisite

a. Employed or engaged as a ship's complement in any capacity on board ships which are required to comply with the ISPS code
b. For those who have designated duties under the ship security plans

Certification

Participant who has successfully completed the course will be awarded a Proficiency in Designated Security Duties Course Certificate by STEi Institute.

Participant attending the Proficiency in Designated Security Duties Course will automatically obtain the Proficiency in Security Awareness Course Certificate.